"They work through advertisements in newspapers published in foreign languages as well as in English, rest rooms in department stores and even at the counters in certain departments; at theaters, especially on amateur nights; at employment agencies, including those connected with mercantile and industrial establishments, and in many other ways. The general delivery of the postoffice is both used and watched as a secret and safe way of spotting, inveighling and trapping young girls.

"(e) The inquiry in Chicago regarding white slavery, or the involuntary participation in the social vice, for the profit of exploiters, reaches conclusions similar to those of the Research Committee of the Committee of Fourteen in New York City, and to those presented by the additional Grand Jury for the January term of the Court of General Session of the County of New York, 'in the Matter of the Investigation as to the Alleged Existence in the County of New York of an Organized Traffic in Women for Immoral Purposes.'

"The findings of the Grand Jury include the following:

"'It appears from indictments found by us and from the testimony of witnesses that a trafficking in the bodies of women does exist, and is carried on by individuals, acting for their own individual benefit, and that these persons are known to each other, and are more or less informally associated. We have also found that associations and clubs, composed mainly or wholly of those profiting from vice, have existed, and that one such association still exists. These associations and clubs are analogous to commercial bodies in other fields, which, while not directly engaged in commerce, are composed of individuals, all of whom as individuals are so engaged.'

"The Committee of Fourteen, through its Research Committee, charged with the study of Law Enforcement against the Social Evil in New York City, report on this point as follows:

"'Some of the profit sharers must be dispensed with through the force of public opinion or by means of heavy penalties, before the growth of vice can be checked. These include those who profit
